Funding Adventist Worldwide

Movement – Bulletin series, Part 1 -Identification January 31, 2024

Columbia, Md. / by Randy Robinson. Tithe is the financial lifeblood of the SDA Church. In 2022 the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America (North American Division, or NAD) collected $1.232 billion in tithe donations. That represents about 45 percent of the tithe collected by the worldwide Adventist Church during 2022. The Adventist Church embraces the theology of tithing by 1.3 million members in the NAD demonstrate that by their generous giving. Two points. First, there is no question that the theology of tithe is biblical. In many places in both the Old and New Testaments, that mandate is clear, most notably in Malachi 3, where God requires us to bring the tithe into the storehouse. While this and other texts hint at what the storehouse might be, it really is not specifically defined in Scripture. The Second point: the Adventist Church defines the storehouse within its own structure as the local conference. That definition is not a theological requirement, nor is the subsequent flow of tithe through the organization. It is a decision we have simply agreed on collectively. The concepts are rooted in Scripture, and the construct was established by the church with much discussion and prayer and has served us well in providing a financial mechanism to support the mission of spreading the gospel around the world. Continued next Sabbath.
